Salute to Color

Remember the colorful Christmas parade . . . and the sparkle and excitement of the 'Winterland Rhythm.'

Those crazy Charleston cuties — wow!

What a glittering scene the drill team made, and remember the excitement when the crowd learned who was queen?

Color Day at Compton High overyone was wearing the "blue and grey" that day

Foreword

After his graduation from Compton high school, John Smith found himself being confronted by numerous questions from a fellow graduate.

This inquisitive fellow put before poor John such stumbling blocks as: Now who was our student body president? What was that Spanish teacher's name we had so much fun with? Who were some of the members of that club we were in? Who were the song and yell leaders? Now what's her name, you know, she was on the drill team? Who quarter-backed our terrific football team? Do you remember, John? Was John able to answer these questions? Yes. He left the room, and as he re-entered, John's friend noticed that he was carrying a colorful book of blue and grey. "What's that?" John's friend questioned. "What else," answered John, "my El Companile. Now please repeat those questions."

THIS GRADUATING CLASS of 1956 is the first one to complete the three years of training at Campton high. It is one of the largest ever to receive diplomas at a single graduation. It has truly been a COLORFUL year. More students, more teachers, more honors, more awards, more traphies, more victories in athletics this year than any previous year since the reorganization and separation from the Compton Junior College

This year Compton has once more a real hardworking bunch of boys. Tarl short on depth but in a few places have some outstanding boys who have turned in exceptional times. In Jon Ide, Roger Jensen and Norm Holliday the team has three of the finest ever to represent Compton. In the past three years the swimmers have broken 12 records that have stood for many years at Compton high. The Doyle's men at all times have brought much esteem and fame to ful For the past three years they have medal winnerse in the C.I.F. relays and C.I.F. finals in swimming. This year a place diving P C F , v * 1

El Companile

El Companie," our annual sitile, has many meanings.

With historical, geographical, and modern connotations.

To know its history, we must travel back in time.

Somewhere to the seventeen hundred.

When our city was first settled by the English Compton fam.,

Our not anal language is English — with C O-M P.

In have the first four letters of our annual siname.

Many Spanish speaking people reside in our community.

The El for our annual sit the gives recognition to the residence of the span ship angulage.

And the constant reminder of the former and the mes

I R DAY - WHAT FUN

The CHIMES came out in blue and grey, each loyal Tarbabe wire the managery, the Tarbabes defeated the Knight 60 to 43 and the whole the transfer with a sports nance under blue skies and since the fire.

t is said that all good things must come to an end, and we of the El Companile staff do not wish to dispute this time honored standard, thus these closing words are being written. We also realize that although our part in the production of this volume is completed, the book will live. Since our memories alone are incapable of holding all the aspects of the 1955-56 school year, the book will live. The book will live until it is consumed by some hungry old trunk stuck in a far corner of an attic. Even then the book is not dead. While trapped in this dark and musty ald prison it attains a terrific amount of potential energy, which, when re-opened, bursts out in a maze of colorful and precious memories.

A book which has required so much attention, time, and effort of both the El Companile staff and art staff, must live, in all fairness to us

This completed volume not only represents the goals and achievements, friendships and events during this past school year, but it also represents untold hours of hard and tedious work on the part of all involved, both during and after school hours.

In sincere appreciation I would like to thank Marjorie Edmunds for fulfilling her job as associate editor, and for her major part in the success of this book and Jeanette Hanson, Dorothy Stratford, Lydia Garcia, Don Thompson, Bob Goff, Arnold Gregory and Jim Jackson, for working together as a unit to get the work done.

I would like to thank, on behalf of the El Companile staff, the art staff, under the able supervision of Mrs. Dought Hoffman, for their fine work on the division sheets and throughout the annual

The staff of the Yearbook House, Monrovia, our publisher, and Chris Myron Studios, our photographer, also deserve our gratitude for sharing with us their knowledge and making things cases.

From the beginning layouts up to this finished product which you now hold, numerous problems arose which never would have been solved without the guidance of Mrs. Viola Bagwell When in need of a push, Mrs. Bagwell was always there to give us the push we needed to meet the all important deadlines. Each and every one of us on the staff of the 1956 El Companile, to compensate for the many headacties which Mrs. Bagwell must have experienced from our mistakes, would like to say in a most sincere manner, THANKS!
